PROGRAMME OVER VIEW

This programme is designed for managers and senior staff in the international hospitality sector. It will provide state of the art guidance on how to maximise sales and drive profitability in various hospitality sales channels.

The programme commences with trends and forecasts that are applied at a local level and this highly visual programme will engage the audience with practical case analysis that uses exemplars from the sector to demonstrate commercial applicability.

The balance between high yielding services and products, control of costs and the maximisation of profit is the foundation of the programme. On completion delegates will be able to apply learning in their host establishments and make tangible improvements to financial results.
